

Appendix K: National Register for Historic Places Registration Form

The following copy of the registration form for inclusion of the Bok Kai Temple on the National Register of Historic Places as having national significance was prepared by Dr. Sue Fawn Chung and Ross Nelson of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Although, previously listed on the National Register as having statewide significance, the nomination form included here was prepared to have the Temple listed with national significance. The nomination was approved by the California State Office of Historic Preservation May 15, 2002.
