

Appendix I: Orion Analytical Paint Analysis Report

The following paint analysis report provides information on the materials used in the exterior mural paintings of the Bok Kai Temple. The report was prepared by James Martin of Orion Analytical based on microscopic, chemical, and instrumental analysis of paint samples removed from the mural by James Bernstein and Anne Rosenthal during the preliminary mural stabilization work.